Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

Final Salute Inc changed hired a new accounting firm in 2024. There was a misunderstanding regarding the filing due date, and the request for an extension was not filed on time. As a result, the extension was not granted, though this was not realized until October. The organization also hired a new auditor in 2024 and the audit process took significantly longer to complete than expected, resulting in further delays with the 990 filing. The organization has a plan in place to prevent this error with future filings.
